

CONGRATULATIONS, BOB MILLS, NATIONAL MAN OF THE YEAR

Inspired by his eight-year-old granddaughter, Ally Barnett, and her heroic battle against acute lymphocytic leukemia, Bob Mills organized a campaign to compete against over 640 other fundraisers to be The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's 2010 National Man of The Year - and he won! Beating out candidates from Los Angeles, Chicago, New York, Boston and a host of cities, large and small, Bob and his "Army" raised more money than any other Man or Woman of the Year in history.

Bob,
You told me at the outset your goal was to be #1 in America. You are. I was delighted to be the auctioneer & a consultant for "Ally's Army". My Live Auction work raised 36% of your $430,507. You set an All Time Record by any candidate, anywhere, EVER!

Congratulations,
Doug Sorrell
